

Current Hot Issues in Electronic Discovery Law and Practice

Presented by KMK's E-Discovery Task Force & Nationally-renowned E-Discovery Attorney, Author, and Speaker, Adam I. Cohen

Adam Cohen is a senior managing director in FTI's Technology practice and is based in New York. He has assisted some of the largest and best-known companies in the world with electronic discovery and electronic information management compliance. Adam's practice focuses on proactive implementation of systems, policies, and procedures to reduce the risk and cost inherent in managing electronic information.

Prior to joining FTI, Adam was a litigation partner at Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, where he represented major corporate clients in complex litigation involving computer and Internet-related issues. He is co-author (with Weil partner David J. Lender) of the annually updated treatise Electronic Discovery: Law and Practice (Wolters Kluwer Publishers), which already has been cited as authority in several landmark electronic discovery opinions by Federal Courts. In addition, Adam is the co-author of the recently published FSI Handbook: Sources, Technology and Process (Wolters Kluwer Publishers).
